THE ART AND SCIENCE OF SURGERY

REPAIR ❖ REJUVENATE ❖ RENEW

It is my sincere pleasure to invite you to the 81st Annual Surgical Update of the International College of Surgeons-United States Section. Our 2019 US Section annual meeting will be held from May 2 to May 4 at the Nemacolin Woodlands Resort in Pennsylvania, approximately 90 minutes from the Pittsburgh airport. I also extend a cordial invitation to the members of the American Academy of Neurological and Orthopaedic Surgeons who will once again be joining us for their 43rd Annual Scientific Meeting, which has been a very important part of our educational activity for almost 15 years.

Situated in the Laurel Highlands of Southwestern Pennsylvania, Nemacolin is an escape unlike any other. There are likely things you've always wanted to do, but just didn't have the access or time to do them. At Nemacolin, many of those experiences are waiting for you. Please review this brochure carefully to learn more about this amazing venue and visit the Nemacolin website for all the details.

The CME portion of our program has been titled, The Art and Science of Surgery: Repair, Rejuvenate, Renew with some of the planned sessions listed above in our preliminary schedule. We will begin our program with what is now our annual global surgery update. Special lectures and specialty sessions will be included in a revised schedule to provide ample AMA Category 1 CME credit.

Of course a visit to a world class resort like Nemacolin would not be complete without some time to actually enjoy the property. If you can't come early or stay late, we have blocked out 4 hours on Friday afternoon for everyone to have some daylight time to experience Nemacolin.

Please watch your mail, email and check our website regularly for updates. Whether you know about the Nemacolin Woodlands Resort and
